

Bullet points for Government/Economics class student content goals

During the 2016-2017 academic year I will utilize the following bullet points to help our students learn more than the required content for graduation.

- How to properly research and learn History/Social Science subjects for a stronger foundation of Government/Economics
- To realize this is an everyday subject that can and will be utilized for the rest of their lives.
- What exactly the role of Government is.
- A thorough understanding of all aspects of political and economic theories.
- How Americas government was designed and formed
- Identify defining aspects of our forefathers that helped shape the American Society.
- An understanding of the Biblical foundations of American Government.
- Create important study habits and skills for use in College.
- How to discredit Non Biblical Government teachings.
- Develop a useful vocabulary of Government/Economic terms and words.
- Find relevancy of political/economic content through the use of mass media.
- Basic personal finance strategies.
- Understanding of World Governments and Economics.
- Prove how Christianity is/was the basis of American Government.
- Ethical business practices to advance future personal economic plans.
- How to fill out basic Government/Economics forms
- How to make informed decisions based on personal beliefs and tools to prepare them for future false persuasion of Government/Economics teachings.