

UNITED STATES HISTORY SKILLS
Beginnings to 1877

- The World Before the Opening of the Atlantic
 - Specialized Vocabulary of Social Studies
 - Interpreting Diagrams
- New Empires in the Americas
 - Outlining and History
 - Framing Historical Questions
- The English Colonies
 - Vocabulary Clues
 - Interpreting Time Lines
- The American Revolution
 - Main Ideas in Social Studies
 - Understanding Historical Interpretation
- Forming a Government
 - Understanding Chronological Order
 - Determining Different Points of View
- Citizenship and the Constitution
 - Summarizing Historical Texts
 - Determining the Context of Statements
- Launching a Nation
 - Inferences about History
 - Making Group Decisions
- The Jefferson Era
 - Public Documents in History
 - Working in Groups to Solve Issues
- A New National Identity
 - Bias and Historical Events
 - Identifying Central Issues
- The Age of Jackson
 - Drawing Conclusions about the Past
 - Solving Problems
- Expanding West
 - Vocabulary in Context
 - Interpreting Maps: Expansion

The North

- Causes and Effects in History
- Personal Conviction and Bias

The South

- Online Research
- Interpreting Graphs

New Movements in America

- Information and Propaganda
- Accepting Social Responsibility

A Divided Nation

- Fact, Opinions, and the Past
- Assessing Primary and Secondary Sources

The Civil War

- Supporting Facts and Details
- Interpreting Political Cartoons

Reconstruction

- Analyzing Historical Information
- Chance, Oversight, and Error in History